From Saturday July 10, to Tuesday July 13, 1779.

St. James's, July 13.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Lord Viſcount Weymouth, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaſter, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt ſincere Affection and inviolable Attachment to your ſacred Perſon and Government, and our unfeigned Zeal and Regard for your Majeſty's Service at this important Criſis, when our Hereditary Enemies are ſaid to be very forward in their Preparations for a ſudden Invaſion of this Kingdom.

With the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence we have ſeen the French King privately interfering in the unhappy Diſputes between Great Britain and her Colonies, and at laſt throwing off the Maſk by entering into an offenſive and defenſive Alliance with Subjects in actual Rebellion againſt their lawful Sovereign. We have with equal Indignation ſeen Spain pretending to act the Part of a Mediator, and almoſt in the ſame Inſtant recalling her Ambaſſador and declaring hoſtile Intentions againſt this Country. But with the greateſt Concern of all, we have ſeen the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, at this Time of publick Danger, arraigned, and your Servants, by the vile Practices of evil and deſigning Men, traduced, only becauſe they have been true to the Intereſt of their Country.

But notwithſtanding theſe formidable Combinations and unnatural Alliances, we truſt in Divine Providence that your Majeſty will be enabled, by the Spirit and Activity of your faithful Subjects, to proſecute this juſt and neceſſary War in ſuch a Manner as to maintain the undoubted Rights of your Kingdoms, and to fruſtrate and defeat the dangerous and ambitious Deſigns of the Houſe of Bourbon.

Given under the Common Seal of the Town of Lancaſter, this Ninth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of Montroſe, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Permiſſion, on the preſent critical Occaſion, to approach your Majeſty, in order voluntarily and unfeignedly to expreſs the Senſe we entertain of the Juſtice and Clemency of your Majeſty's Government, over all the Subjects of the Britiſh Empire. We reaſonably expected, that the wiſe and paternal Methods, adopted and purſued by your Majeſty, for reſtoring legal Government and Tranquility to America, would have operated with Succeſs for that deſireable Purpoſe. With Concern, however, we have beheld, that your Majeſty's gracious Intentions and Endeavours have been fruſtrated by the Obſtinacy and Ambition of the Leaders of Rebellion in the Colonies, who, with the moſt unexampled and unnatural Ingratitude, have joined themſelves to the ancient and hereditary Enemies of their Parent State. The Houſe of Bourbon, with a Perfidy and Meanneſs peculiar to that Houſe, has interfered in order to diſturb your Majeſty's Government, and accompliſh its ſiniſter Views; but as the Cauſe of your Majeſty is the Cauſe of Juſtice, Truth and Humanity, ſo we truſt it is the Cauſe of Heaven; and that in Conſequence your Majeſty's Arms will finally triumph over all your Enemies, let their Number or Power be ever ſo formidable.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty of our dutiful Regard and unſhaken Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, and that your Subjects, under our Juriſdiction, are actuated by the ſame Diſpoſitions. Little as our Importance may be, in a comparative View, yet on the preſent and every future Occaſion, we ſhall, with Zeal and Chearfulneſs, join with the reſt of our Fellow-Subjects, to the utmoſt Extent of our Power, in every Meaſure that may be propoſed, in every Effort that may be made, for ſupporting the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, the happy and noble Conſtitution of our Country, and repelling all the Attacks of their Enemies.

We take Leave of your Majeſty, humbly requeſting, that the Supreme Governor of all things may ſo over-rule every Event, as to enable your Majeſty to ſubdue all your Enemies, and diffuſe over the wide Field of War and Rebellion the Bleſſings of Peace and legal Government.

Signed, in Preſence and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Town Council, at Montroſe, July 5, 1779.

James Low, Provoſt.

The Town-Council of Montroſe have publiſhed a Reward of Five Guineas to every Able, and Two Guineas and an Half to every Ordinary Seaman, or Landman, within that Town and Liberties, who ſhall enter to ſerve on Board the Navy before the Firſt of October next.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply, of the County of Clackmanan, conſcious of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild and equitable Government, and affected with a juſt Senſe of the critical Situation into which your perfidious Enemies, the French and Spaniards, have brought theſe Kingdoms, by joining with and aiding your rebellious Subjects in America,—humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, and to aſſure your Majeſty, in the moſt ſolemn and public Manner, of our unſhaken Fidelity and Attachment to your Perſon and Government; and that we are firmly reſolved, by every Exertion in our Power, to ſupport your Majeſty againſt the hoſtile Deſigns and Attempts of your Enemies. And we truſt, that, by the Bleſſing of God, the unanimous Efforts of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects will ſpeedily have the deſired Effect of reſtoring Peace and Tranquility to theſe Realms; ſo that the Britiſh Empire may be tranſmitted entire to your lateſt Poſterity.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
For recalling and probibiting Seamen from ſerving Foreign Princes and States.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We are informed, that great Numbers of Mariners and Seafaring Men, Our natural-born Subjects, are in the Service of divers Foreign Princes and States, to the Prejudice of Our Kingdom; We have therefore thought it neceſſary, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publiſh this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby ſtrictly charge and command all Maſters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men whatſoever and whereſoever, being Our natural-born Subjects, who are in the Pay or Service of any Foreign Prince or State, or do ſerve in any Foreign Ship or Veſſel, that forthwith they, and every of them, do (according to their known and bounden Duty and Allegiance) withdraw themſelves, depart from, and quit ſuch Foreign Services, and return Home to their Native Countries: And further, We do hereby ſtrictly prohibit and forbid all Maſters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men whatſoever, being Our natural-born Subjects, from entering, and do charge and command them, and every of them, from henceforth to forbear to enter themſelves into the Pay or Service of any Foreign Prince or State, or to ſerve in any Foreign Ship or Veſſel whatſoever without Our Special Licence firſt had and obtained in that Behalf; to all which We expect due Obedience and exact Conformity: And we do hereby publiſh and declare, That the Offenders to the contrary ſhall not only incur Our juſt Diſpleaſure, but be proceeded againſt for their Contempt, according to the utmoſt Severities of the Law. And We do hereby declare, That if any ſuch Maſters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men, (being Our Subjects) ſhall be taken in any Foreign Service by the Turks, Algerines, or any others, they ſhall not be reclaimed by Us as Subjects of Great Britain.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Thirtieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, in the Nineteenth Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

THE Letters from Sir George Collyer, Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships in North America, to Mr. Stephens, of which the following are Extracts and Copies, were received on Saturday Evening too late to be inſerted in the Gazette.

Raiſonable, off New York, June 18, 1779.

SIR,

THE Solebay arrived laſt Night. She brings me Diſpatches from Captain Henry, ſenior Officer of the King's Ships at Georgia, which I have the Honor to communicate to their Lordſhips herewith; and am, Sir,

Your moſt obedient and
moſt humble Servant,
GEO. COLLIER.

Philip Stephens, Eſq;

Extract of a Letter from Captain Henry, Senior Officer of His Majeſty's Ships in Georgia, to Sir George Collier.

SIR, Savannah, May 23, 1779.

I HAVE the Honor of your Letter and Orders by the Roſe and Solebay, who brought all their Convoy in ſafe. This goes by the Solebay, who ſails Tomorrow Morning.

The King's Troops, about 3000, under Major-General Prevoſt, croſſed Savannah River on the 29th of April, and marched from Puriſburgh towards Charleſtown, the Rebels abandoning every ſtrong Poſt as our Army approached. We are now, without Loſs, in Poſſeſſion of James Iſland, John's Iſland, and all the South Side of Charleſtown Harbour, the Rebels having abandoned and burnt Fort Johnſon. General Moultrie is in Charleſtown with 1000 Men; and General Lincoln at Dorcheſter, afraid to come on Charleſtown Neck, leſt we ſhould get behind him.

The Greenwich Armed Sloop, Comet and Snake Galleys, with Four Victuallers of eaſy Draught, are gone up Stono Inlet, and from thence up the River to Wapoo Cut, agreeable to the General's Requeſt.

The Vigilant is ordered from Port Royal with Eight Tranſports and an Ordnance Brig to Five Fathom Hole, within Charleſtown Bar, to co-operate as much as poſſible with the Army.

The Germain Provincial armed Ship remains at Port Royal, for the Protection of the Inhabitants, who, together with all the other Iſlands, have ſent in their Submiſſions. When the Vigilant and armed Veſſels ſailed from hence, they went through Calli-

bogie Sound and Scull Creek into Broad River; and, on their Approach, the Rebels burnt Fort Lyttleton in Port Royal, and abandoned another Fort on St. Hellena, leaving it entire. We have taken the Guns out of both, there being no Troops to garriſon them, and not caring to leave them in our Rear, leſt the Rebels ſhould re-poſſeſs them.

Charleſtown has offered to capitulate, if they might remain neuter during the War, which was refuſed: Our Army is in Poſſeſſion of ſeveral Flats and Canoes on Aſhley River; they have beſides Seven Flat Boats from hence; their Plan is to croſs the Harbour, and, if poſſible, poſſeſs Mount Pleaſant.

The Roſe and Keppel Brig are to ſail in Two Days with Two of the Victuallers from York, and One from hence with Rum, which the Army wants; they are ordered to join the Vigilant in Five-fathom Hole.

Four Veſſels are juſt arrived from the Weſt Indies with Rum, which has ſet us up in that Article.

The Supply of Stores and Slops you have been pleaſed to ſend in the Roſe is very ample to our Wants.

SIR,
Your moſt obedient and
moſt humble Servant
(Signed) John Henry.

Raiſonable, off New-York, June 13, 1779.

SIR,

MAJOR General Matthew being the Commanding Officer of the King's Land Forces employed on the Expedition to Virginia, I directed, in conſequence of his Requiſition, thoſe Troops to be re-embarked in the Tranſports; previous to which however they demoliſhed the Parapets and Barracks of the Fort, and ſet Fire to all the remaining Stores, Storehouſes, and other Buildings in the Dock-Yard at Goſport, as alſo to the Veſſels on the Stocks, &c. to an immenſe Amount: The Town and Harbor of Portſmouth was then abandoned by us, and I put to Sea with the Men of War and Tranſports mentioned in my former Letter, together with Seventeen Prizes, making in the whole Fifty-three Sail, and proceeded back to New-York, where we ſafely arrived on the 29th of May, after a moſt favorable Paſſage of little more than three Days.

I am,
SIR,
Your moſt obedient
humble Servant,
GEO. COLLIER.

Philip Stephens, Eſq.

Raiſonable, off New York, June 14, 1779.

SIR,

IN my Letter to you of Yeſterday, I mentioned the Men of War and Tranſports under my Command arriving here on the 29th of laſt Month from Virginia; you will be pleaſed to acquaint their Lordſhips that immediately on my anchoring, the Commander in Chief of the Army informed me of his Intention to proceed on an Expedition up the North River to reduce the Works the Rebels had thrown up at Verplanks, and Stoney Points, for the Security of the important Paſs of Kings Ferry; the General expreſſing a Wiſh for my being preſent, and to have the Aſſiſtance of the Troops returned from Virginia, I directed the Tranſports to move up Hudſon's River immediately, and accompanied them in the Raiſonable, having alſo with me the Camilla, Vulture Sloop, Cornwallis, Crane, and Philadelphia Galleys, and Two Gun-Boats. We paſſed the Chevaux de Frize without any Accident, and came too with the Raiſonable, about Eight Miles above Dobbs Ferry; I then went into the Camilla, and, proceeding on with the Tranſports, anchored juſt out of Random Shot of Fort la Fayette, which the Rebels had erected on Verplanks Point; Major-General Vaughan, with a Part of the Army, landing on the Eaſt Side, and Sir Henry Clinton, with Major-General Pattiſon, and the Remainder of the Troops, on the oppoſite Shore, about a Mile and Half from Stoney Point, an exceeding ſtrong Poſt, where the Rebels were erecting a Block Houſe, and fortifying the Heights. On our Approach they quitted their Works, and ſet them on Fire, eſcaping to the Mountains. The Troops ſoon took Poſſeſſion, and, with infinite Fatigue and Labour, heavy Cannon were dragged up a ſteep Precipice from a very bad Landing-place; the Three Gallies being advanced fired upon Fort la Fayette, which was returned by the Rebels. Major-General Pattiſon, of the Artillery, had, with indefatigable Perſeverance, erected Two Batteries (one of which was Mortars) during the Night, and at Dawn of Day began to play upon the Rebel Fort; the Diſtance acroſs the River being about a Thouſand Yards, and was commanded by the high Ground of Stoney Point: The Cannonading continued all Day, during which General Vaughan and his Diviſion marched round, and completely inveſted the Enemy's Poſt.

So ſoon as it was dark, I ordered the Vulture, and Cornwallis Galley, to paſs the Fort, and anchor above it, to prevent the Eſcape of the Rebels by Water; this was done without Damage, and had the intended Effect; the Fire from our Batteries and Gallies being now much ſuperior to that of the Enemy, they beat the Chamade; the Cannonading ceaſed; a Flag of Truce was ſent in to ſummons them, and they conſented to ſurrender the Fort, and their Arms, and become Priſoners of War. We found the Fort a ſmall complete little Work, with a Block Houſe, double Ditch, Chevaux de Frize, and Abbatis. His Majeſty's Troops have taken Poſſeſſion of it, and are alſo fortifying the ſtrong Poſt of Stoney Point, by which we are Maſters of King's Ferry, and oblige the Rebels to make a Detour of Ninety Miles acroſs the Mountains to communicate with the Country Eaſt of Hudſon's River.

I am,
SIR,
Your moſt obedient
humble Servant,
GEO. COLLIER.

Vienna, June 26. This Capital was greatly alarmed this Morning, about Nine o'Clock, by the Blowing up of a large Powder Magazine in the Out-ſkirts of one of the Suburbs, in which about Forty Artillery-men were employed in filling Cartridges, whereby many Lives were loſt. The Roofs of many Houſes in the adjoining Suburb were conſiderably damaged; and it is feared that Numbers of People may have been maimed or deſtroyed. Prince Charles Lichtenſtein, the Governor of the Town, went immediately to the Spot, and all poſſible Aſſiſtance was given. The Emperor himſelf arrived from Laxenbourg with the utmoſt Expedition; and, by his Imperial Majeſty's Orders, all Means were uſed to give the ſpeedieſt Relief to the ſurviving Sufferers.

Groſvenor-ſquare, July 7, 1779.

WHereas, by an Act of Parliament paſſed the 3d Day of this Month, intituled, "An Act for augmenting the Militia," it is enacted, that from and after the paſſing thereof, if any Perſon or Perſons, properly qualified according to the Laws now in Force, ſhall offer to His Majeſty's Lieutenant of any County to raiſe One or more Company or Companies to be added to the Regiment or Battalion of any County or Riding, that it ſhall and may be lawful for His Majeſty's Lieutenant to accept ſuch Offers, and appoint Officers accordingly.

In Purſuance therefore of the ſaid Act of Parliament, any Perſon or Perſons properly qualified, and deſirous of raiſing One or more Company or Companies to be added to either of the Regiments or Battalions of Militia of the Weſt Riding of the County of York, City of York, and County of the ſame, or Ainſty of York, are deſired to give Notice to His Majeſty's Lieutenant of the ſaid Weſt Riding, City and County of the ſame, or Ainſty of York.

ROCKINGHAM.

County of Nottingham.

WHereas, by an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, it is enacted, that if any Perſon or Perſons, properly qualified according to the Laws now in Force, ſhall offer to His Majeſty's Lieutenant of any County to raiſe one or more Company or Companies to be added to the Regiment or Battalion of any County or Riding, it ſhall and may be lawful for His Majeſty's Lieutenant to accept ſuch Offers, and to appoint Officers to command the ſame; and whereas it may be expedient to appoint a General Meeting of the County, in order to conſult what Meaſures may be proper to be taken for the Service of the Publick, in the very critical Situation of this Country; I do hereby appoint a General Meeting to be held at the Blackmoor's Head at Nottingham, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning, on the 22d Day of this inſtant July; and do earneſtly requeſt the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County, to attend the ſaid Meeting.

Warwickſhire Militia.

NOtice is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Deputy-Lieutenants of the County of Warwick is appointed to be held at the Three Tuns in Warwick, on Thurſday the 29th of July inſtant, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, for putting in Execution the ſeveral Laws now in Force, relating to the Raiſing and Training the Militia.

By Order of Three of the Deputy Lieutenants of the ſaid County.

July 10, 1779.

PUrſuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made the 20th Day of May, 1779, in a certain Cauſe, wherein William Johnſon, an Infant, is Plaintiff, and John Cutting and others are Defendants, Humphrey Brunſden, formerly of Cirencester in the County of Glouceſter, Poſt-Chaiſe Driver, (who in the Year 1753 intermarried with one Hannah Johnſon, and who was known by the Name of Captain Death) if living, is forthwith to come before John Hett, Eſq; one of the Maſters of the ſaid Court, at his Chambers in Symond's-inn, Chancery-lane, London; and any Perſon that can give any Account of the ſaid Humphrey Brunſden, or where he hath been or reſided at any Time ſince the Year 1753, or whether he is living or dead, and, if living, where he now is or reſides; and, if dead, when he died, is deſired to give Notice thereof at the ſaid Maſter's Chambers, York-Building Company's Creditors.

IN the Proceſs of ranking of the Creditors of the York-Building Company, pending in the Court of Seſſion, the Lord Monboddo Ordinary has made the following Order:

"Of-new ordains the whole Creditors of the York-Building "Company, who have not already produced their Intereſts, to "produce all their Claims, Rights, and Diligences, compe-"tent to them reſpectively, againſt the ſaid Company or their "Eſtates, in the Hands of the Clerk to this Proceſs, betwixt "and the Firſt Day of Auguſt next; with Certification, that "the Intereſt of no Creditor will thereafter be received, with-"out Payment of an Amand of Forty Shillings Sterling; "and authoriſes and appoints the common Agent to the "ranking to make Publication and Intimation of this Order "to all concerned, by Advertiſements in the London Gazette "and in the Edinburgh News-papers."

It is intreated that the Creditors, and the Agents for the Creditors, pay Obedience to this Order, by lodging their Grounds of Debt with Mr. Keith, Clerk to the Proceſs of Ranking, or with Alexander Mackenzie, Clerk to His Majeſty's Signet, Edinburgh, common Agent for carrying on the ranking; as, by many Creditors neglecting to produce their Grounds of Debt, the Progreſs of claſſing and ranking the ſeveral Creditors is greatly retarded; whereas, if the whole Vouchers and Grounds of Debt to be claimed on were produced, every Endeavour will be uſed to bring the ranking and claſſing of the different Debts to a Concluſion, whereby the Creditors may receive their ſeveral Dividends.

London, July 9, 1779.

WE, the Executors of Samuel Watſon, Eſq; late of Kingſton upon Hull, do hereby give this Public Notice, that Bond Creditors may apply for a Dividend of his Eſtate of 10s. in the Pound, on Friday the 30th of July; when the ſame may be received of Mr. Richard Terry, of Kingſton upon Hull, or of us, in Church-alley, Lothbury, London, on producing the Bonds.
